

The Inner Light Chamber Teacher Training is an invitation to refine your skills, to sit in your rising mastery to be the teacher, the guide, the healer whom leads and assists others along their healing path.

March 16-20, 2025

This quintessential week is about laying the groundwork. During our time together we will:

- touch into each key
- spend time in inquiry and reflection
- allow new energies to flow in
- enter ceremony
- receive guidance from the Spirit Doctor Team

All the while creating a cohesive energy of support and open field of possibility. Our follow up sessions will be oriented towards further exploration of each key, discovery of your strengths and learning edge, practice, and creation.

The templates and architecture: The Healing Temple and the Practitioner Program are in place. They serve as our jumping off point. We will explore ways to work with the templates and how to apply them in multiple situations and contexts. We will explore what it means to mentor, to guide, to teach, for you to embody and integrate this level of work into your practice.

The Teacher Training is a living energy system, an open fluid system, in which each practitioner will lead with their innate and developed talents. Our collective invitation is to stretch ourselves and explore ways that we can learn from one another and build upon a steady platform of further trust and growth.

The 6 teacher training keys:

Key 1 Impart – How you embody the 8 pillars of the Healing Temple is your starting point. We will look at what each pillar means to you. The qualities most important and true for you lead to an understanding of your core principles from which to base your work, your practice, teaching, and mentoring.

Key 2 Steady – Your presence, grounding and trust, set the stage for steadying the shoreline. Creating a safe container for others to explore their path, goals, and longings. Holding an open container while confidently guiding. Like a captain of a ship, you have a map and a compass, along with the knowing that the wind and elements will always play a part.

Key 3 Encourage – The art of offering guidance and support. Holding open the possibility for an unlimited destination - for yourself and your students/community/clients. Allowing each participant to grow at their own pace and time while exploring and integrating the pillars of this healing work. To become the bridge, the helping hand.

Key 4 Create – Dive in, play, dream, collect your jewels of wisdom and experience and bring them into form. We will explore the creation of new programs and formats for you to work with and in, as well as the practitioner program.

Key 5 Integrate – Internalizing and embodying. A meeting point within where the Spirit Doctor Team and you come together to co-create and co-facilitate.

Key 6 Envision – A catalyzing point. A dream “big” potential to reality.

Throughout the program we will be looking at: What keys are natural for you? What keys need strengthening? What keys need support? We will be cultivating your gifts and developing strengths to take you where you want to go.
